

TKU Foreign Students Financial Aid Regulations

1. The purpose of this document is to help foreign students solve their living or school's difficulties in Taiwan
2. Those who applied for the scholarship will have to do English or other language teaching, translation, or other relating work arranged by the Office of International and Cross-Strait Affairs (OICSA).
3. The number of scholarships granted each year may vary according to the school's annual budget.
4. Funding : Each student will receive NT $10,000 per month, up to three months.
5. Application Eligibility :
 - (1)Foreign students with formal application and enrollment of TKU, and in accordance with the Ministry of Education "International students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan".
 - (2)Those who already received Taiwan Government Scholarships, TKU Entrance Scholarships and The Outstanding Foreign Student Scholarship are not qualified to apply.
 - (3)For freshman that do not have any score record need to submit Chinese or English proficiency certificate and other documents. Those who already completed at least one semester in TKU, scored 80 points or more in the current semester for Conduct, must be of good behavior, does not have any bad records and who satisfied the following criteria:
 - a. Undergraduate students must take the minimum credits comply with the “TKU Regulations on Student Course Selection” per semester, with an average academic grade of 60 or above for the current semester and keep a clean behavioral record.
 - b. Graduate students must take at least 4 credits per semester, with an average academic grade of 80 or above for the previous semester. From their sixth and fourth years of study respectively, PhD candidates and graduate students will not be eligible to apply for this scholarship.
 - c. Graduate students who are working on their master or doctoral dissertations and are unable to provide an academic record for the previous semester should submit recommendation letters from their advisors of the departments or graduate institutes at which they are enrolled, as well as a dissertation plan. This should include: your research motivation, research structure, sources of research materials, research outline, research references, and etc. Graduate students who are working on their dissertations without taking at least 4 credits can only apply for the scholarship twice.
6. Audit criteria : All scholarship applications will be evaluated by the Overseas Student Scholarship Review Committee based on the students' whole performance and language ability documents provided by the applicants.
7. Those who receive the scholarship are required to do English teaching or translation work for 30 hours per month. (please provide a photocopy of a valid Work Permit)
8. The above regulations take effect from the date of their promulgation, after being approved by the International and Exchange Student Committee. The same applies to any amendments made thereafter.